

Ensure clarity around the Notes document's qualifications section – ie if there isn't a qualification, then we can be flexible about what could be received as evidence, such as a letter from the OM which confirms the original accreditation date.

