

Juliet Rosenfeld

julietrosenfeld@gmail.com

MA, AdipPsy, UKCP Reg, BACP (member)- psychoanalytic psychotherapist qualified in 2012
Honorary Couples Therapist Tavistock and Portman NHS Trust 2017 ongoing
Camden Psychotherapy Unit - Patron since 2012
Non Executive Director, The People's Operator PLC 2014

Institute of Psychoanalysis (IOPA) - admitted for training 2015

Regent's University School of Psychotherapy and Counselling 2007-2012 Masters and PG Diploma in Integrative Psychotherapy

Director South Street Analytic Reading Group 2010-2013

IOPA The Post Foundation Course 2010-2011

IOPA The Foundation Course 2009-2010

IOPA Introductory Lectures 2008-2009

Tavistock and Portman NHS Trust 2006-2007 - Foundation Course

Camden Psychotherapy Unit 2007-2012 Honorary Psychotherapist

The Crossfield Centre 2006-2007 - Honorary psychiatric placement

Tavistock and Portman NHS Trust 2004-2005- D10 MA in Organisational

Consultancy

Maternity Leave 2005-2006

Tavistock and Portman NHS Trust 2003-2004 Foundation Course

Cabinet Office, Permanent Secretary's Private Office - 2004-2005.

St Luke's Advertising 1998-2004 - Marketing and New Business Director

J Walter Thompson 1993- 1998 Advertising Account Manager

Marks and Spencer PLC 1992-1993 - Commercial Management Trainee

Oxford University (Keble College) MA Modern Languages 1988-1992
2.1 in French and Italian

Sexual Attraction in Therapy: Clinical Perspectives on Moving Beyond the Taboo- A Guide for Training and Practice published Wiley. (2014) Maria Luca (Editor.)

Why can't we be lovers if we can't be friends - co-authored with Dr Maria Luca

How Freud Helps Me to Mourn

<http://www.theguardian.com/lifeandstyle/2015/oct/31/how-freud-helps-me-to-mourn-my-husbands-death>

"I'm so lucky to have you" he would say

<http://www.theguardian.com/lifeandstyle/2016/may/21/juliet-rosenfeld-husband-death-lung-cancer-bereavement>

A Therapist's Storm

Therapy Today (publication July 14th 2016)

The State of Disbelief (Short Books, publication date Spring 2019)